Hamilton Island Nature Escape

Eat breakfast with Koalas, explore secluded sandy coves or conquer the climb up to Passage Peak and take in the views.

This may just be your most memorable breakfast yet, from the scenic cruise to Hamilton Island to eating your breakfast next to a koala in the Koala Cafe. WILDLIFE Hamilton Island shake up your typical breakfast routine.

After breakfast your day is your own, use it to explore the Passage Peak or South East head Trail walking tracks and become acquainted with the local wildlife and find the best views on the island. Feeling energized? Do both!

If that all sounds too much stroll up to One Tree Hill grab a cold drink and sit back, relax and take in the view of Catseye beach.

Walking Trails

Passage Peak: a 90 minute challenging walk to the highest peak on Hamilton Island and sensational views

South East Head Trail: a 120 minute Aussie Bushwalk. Staring in dense bush the trail gives way to exposed rocky features and sharp cliffs with amazing views of the Lindeman group of islands.

One Tree Hill: a 20 minute uphill walk to a local favourite with views across Whitsunday Passage to the right and to the left Catseye Beach.
